

CALL FOR EBVS NATIONAL REPRESENTATIVE FOR BULGARIA

The European Board of Veterinary Specialisation (EBVS) is a non-profit organization committed to leading and promoting veterinary specialist professional training and certification in Europe, aiming to ensure superior animal and public health and well-being (<https://ebvs.eu/>).

EBVS National Representatives aim to broadcast the existence and purpose of the EBVS and European Veterinary Specialisation, within their own countries.

EBVS National Representatives should be:

- recognized at country level and active in their national specialist association (where applicable),
- able to devote time and effort in the affairs of the Board,
- able to meet with chambers and statutory bodies of their country, so they can act on behalf of EBVS, •good ambassadors for EBVS and the speciality Colleges - they should not be isolated to their own discipline, but must be willing and able to support all Colleges and
- Diplomates of suitable seniority (ideally with a letter of endorsement from their respective College).

EBVS National Representatives will be tasked with, among others:

- contacting their professional veterinary licensing body (competent authority) to enquire if they are recognising the EBVS Diplomates, and if not, understanding the issues and working with the support of EBVS to gain recognition of EBVS and its Colleges,
- gathering a database of Veterinary Educational organisations, professional groups and societies within their geographical area, to whom EBVS should liaise;
- encouraging all Veterinary Diplomates in their country to use the EBVS specialist title and the EBVS logo on their letterhead and promotional materials;
- exploring the possibilities to establish a national veterinary specialist organization;
- preparing an annual report of activities and
- attending any National Representatives' meeting organized by the EBVS Executive Committee.

Applicants will be evaluated by the EBVS Selections Committee, reviewed by the Executive Committee and will be appointed by the EBVS Board.

National Representatives will be appointed for 4 years. Normally, the appointment can be extended once.

Interested colleagues should send a CV, a motivational letter and, if possible, a letter of endorsement from their College, to: Agnieszka Florczyk DECVS, e-mail Agnieszka.florczyk@vetmeduni.ac.at

Deadline for receiving applications is: 15th November 2024.

Sincerely,

EBVS Selection Committee

Pierre Maliver (ECVP), Agnieszka Florczyk (ECVS), Silke Salavati (ECVIM-CA)
