

Annual Scientific Conference and Annual General Meeting

”Transforming food systems: A new era for VPH”

School of Public Health
University of Western Attica
Athens, Greece

23rd to 25th September 2020

You are welcomed to the ECVPH scientific conference and AGM 2020 in Athens.

CONFERENCE VENUE

All activities of the ECVPH Conference and AGM 2020 will take place at the School of Public Health/University of Western Attica (196, Alexandras Avenue, GR115 21, Athens). It is conveniently situated at the borders of central Athens, at Ampelokipi area, within a walking distance of 2 minutes from the metro station "Ampelokipi".

TRAVELLING AND ACCOMMODATION

Arriving to Athens is advisable to take place through the Athens international airport. On arriving at the airport, although there are other choices (suburban train, buses, taxis) it is more convenient to use the metro line. At issuing the ticket you can ask for a special electronic ticket (valid for all urban public transportation means), which for 22.00 euros allow for free riding valid for three days. For more information see www.ametro.gr.

We have made special arrangements with the following hotel:

A. HOTEL PRESIDENT www.president.gr

It will be the Board Headquarters. It is very conveniently situated within a walking distance to the venue place.
