

Bylaws¹ on the Use of the Internet and electronic mailing in the European College of Veterinary Public Health (ECVPH)

Article 1

1. All correspondence to and from the ECVPH is conducted electronically. Each Member must have an active email address.

Article 2

1. The ECVPH maintains the web site www.ecvph.org. All relevant documents and information related to College activities are available on this page.
2. Members of the ECVPH have access to pages on www.ecvph.org that are restricted from the public (the LOGIN Area). Upon registration on the website, members receive a login and password

Article 3

1. Members are personally responsible for keeping their records and contact details up-to-date via www.ecvph.org and www.ebvs.eu and formally notifying any change to their personal information to the ECVPH Secretariat to ensure that these are current.
2. Change of addresses must be registered and notified within 30 days. It is the responsibility of each Member to ensure that the email address notified to the College, and as registered on the web site is current.
3. Members should regularly visit the web site to obtain current information on College activities and Member duties.

Article 4

1. All documents and files submitted to the ECVPH should generally be in electronic format. This specifically includes documents and files related to the following procedures:

¹ *Bylaws in accordance with Article 18 of the Constitution. This bylaw was passed by the ECVPH Council at its meeting of 07 October, 2009 and was adapted at the meeting of 1st February 2016.

- a) Applications to register as a Resident.
- b) Applications to sit for examination.
- c) Applications for re-evaluation.
- d) Applications to register a training programme.

2. Upon securing appropriate standards for data security and confidentiality the ECVPH may conduct the following College activities in electronic format

- a) Online elections and voting.
- b) Online surveys and polls.